Title: Observation regarding deprecating conduct of some members in the House.

MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER: Hon. Members, the conduct of several Members in the House today, in showing banners and placards in the well of the House, shouting slogans; and one Member dressed up dramatically and attempting to play flute in the well of the House was highly derogatory to the dignity of the House.

I deprecate the conduct of the Members in strongest possible terms and hope that there shall not be a recourse to such behaviour in future.
